WILEAG 3rd EDITION STANDARDS:
1.2.3, 2.4.4, 6.1.7, 6.1.8

PURPOSE: The purpose of this Order is to establish the uniform, appearance and grooming standards for all Police Department employees as well as identify the equipment that to be issued to each sworn officer. This Order contains one section which applies to the Sworn Officer Standards, and one section which applies to the Civilian Employee Standards.

This Order consists of the following numbered sections:

I. POLICY

II. RESPONSIBILITY

III. NON-CONFORMING UNIFORM OR CLOTHING

SWORN OFFICER STANDARDS

IV. UNIFORM & EQUIPMENT SPECIFICATIONS

V. DEPARTMENT ISSUED UNIFORM & EQUIPMENT

VI. BODY ARMOR

VII. NON-ISSUE CLOTHING ITEMS

VIII. LEATHER EQUIPMENT
I. POLICY
   A. The Port Washington Police Department functions in a business environment providing services to the community. Though it is important to be comfortable while at work, employees must present a business-like appearance and image. The Chief of Police shall establish the police uniform and prescribe the requirements for wearing of the uniform and for the civilian dress of officers when on duty or off duty when acting in their capacity as a police officer for the department. Civilian employee attire shall be clothing which is approved by the Chief of Police as identified in this Order.

II. RESPONSIBILITY
   A. Supervisory officers are charged with the responsibility of seeing that their sworn subordinates are at all times properly wearing and maintaining their uniforms and equipment and conforming to the established grooming standards, and that their non-sworn subordinates alike are at all times wearing the appropriate and approved attire.
III. NON-CONFORMING UNIFORM OR CLOTHING

A. All department employees shall be required to be in regulation uniform or civilian attire as set forth in this Order at all times, while on duty.

B. Exceptions to this rule may be made and employees may be excused from wearing the regulation uniform or civilian attire when good police practices require that an employee not be in uniform or prescribed civilian attire. Such exceptions shall be granted by supervisory officers only.

C. Employees excused from wearing the regulation uniform or civilian attire while performing their duties shall have complete uniforms or civilian attire available in the event that a change in assignment may require same.

SWORN OFFICER STANDARDS

IV. UNIFORM & EQUIPMENT SPECIFICATIONS

A. Sworn members of the department while on-duty shall wear only the prescribed uniform and carry only the equipment and ammunition which has been issued or approved by the Chief of Police. Sworn members of the department while off-duty, but acting in their official capacity as a police officer, shall carry only the equipment and ammunition which has been issued or approved by the Chief of Police.

V. DEPARTMENT ISSUED UNIFORM & EQUIPMENT

A. The uniform and equipment issued to sworn department members shall be of the type and in the quantity as prescribed herein or by the Chief of Police.

B. The department shall replace police uniform items and equipment which are damaged in the line of duty. Damaged items shall be turned over to the Captain.

VI. BODY ARMOR

A. It is the policy of the Port Washington Police Department to maximize officer safety through the wearing of body armor in conjunction with the practice of prescribed safety procedures. While body armor provides a significant level of protection, it is not a substitute for sound, basic safety procedures.

B. Issuance of Body Armor

1. All officers shall be required to wear body armor with their uniform during field assignments.
2. All body armor issued by the department shall comply with the current minimum protective standards prescribed by the National Institute of Justice, and at a minimum, be rated to protect against the department’s standard issue duty ammunition.

C. Use of body armor

1. Body armor shall be worn immediately upon issuance, and shall be worn under the uniform shirt or with the Blauer, poly blend ArmorSkin (outer carrier) or an alternative brand/style outer carrier, with approval of Chief of Police.

2. Both uniformed and non-uniformed officers are required to wear the department issued body armor at all times while on duty unless exempted as follows:
   a) When the officer is involved in undercover or plain-clothes work that a supervisor determines would be compromised by the wearing of body armor.
   b) When the officer is assigned to perform an administrative function.
   c) When the officer is assigned to a classroom training session.

D. Inspection of body armor

1. Supervisors shall be responsible for ensuring that body armor is worn and maintained as required by this policy.

E. Care and maintenance of department issued body armor

1. Each officer is responsible for the proper storage of body armor in accordance with manufacturer’s instructions and daily inspection for signs of damage and general cleanliness.

2. Since dirt and perspiration may erode ballistic panels, each officer shall be responsible for cleaning their body armor in accordance with the manufacturer’s instructions.

3. Officers are responsible for reporting any damage or wear to the ballistic panels or cover to their shift supervisor.

VII. NON-ISSUE CLOTHING ITEMS

A. The following non-issue items must be worn with the uniform:

1. Socks: If visible and worn with low cut shoes, must be black or navy blue. If white socks are necessary due to medical requirements, prior approval must be obtained from the Chief of Police.
2. Shoes: Shall be a black military style boot or oxford with a plain rounded toe. Tennis shoe style shall only be worn for bike patrol. Any other style of footwear must be approved by the Chief or his/her designee. Shoes or boots with any type of decorative stitching or adornment shall not be allowed. Shoes and boots shall be kept clean, shined and in good repair.

B. The following non-issued items may be worn with the uniform:

1. T-shirts: When worn with an open collar uniform shirt and visible, the t-shirt must be dark navy in color.

2. Turtleneck Shirt (or dickey): May be worn under the long-sleeved uniform shirt, if a necktie is not worn.

3. Muffler/Scarf: When worn, must be worn around the neck and tucked inside the jacket. Must be black or navy blue in color.

4. Sweater: May be worn with the uniform. “V” neck pullover style only.

5. Approved Insulated Vest Without Collar: Must be black or navy blue in color. May be worn in lieu of or without the jacket.

6. Sunglasses: If worn, may be metal frames, plastic frames, or clip-on style. Plastic frames must be black, brown, or navy blue in color. Sunglasses may not have mirrored lenses.

VIII. LEATHER EQUIPMENT

A. The following leather equipment shall be worn on the Sam Browne belt:

1. Chemical Agent Holder
2. Handcuff Holder
3. Holster
4. Magazine Holder
5. Radio Holder
6. Taser

B. The order of placement of the leather equipment on the Sam Browne belt shall be at the discretion of the individual officer for personal comfort and accessibility.

C. The flashlight holder, key holder, and pocket knife holder shall be plain black leather and shall be optional.
IX. WEARING OF THE UNIFORM

A. Uniformed officers shall be required to be in regulation uniform at all times while on duty.

B. Uniforms, when worn, shall be neat, clean, and well pressed. Shoes, leather, and brass shall be polished.

C. The badge/shield shall be displayed in the proper place on the shirt or outer-most garment except when foul weather gear is worn for a short period of time; e.g., raincoat.

D. Shirt: Due to weather changes in this part of the country, Officers have the discretion when to wear the long sleeve or short sleeve shirt, except from December 1 to March 1, when long sleeve shirts shall be worn. Shirts shall be kept neat and clean with pockets secured.

E. Brass and Approved Adornments:

1. Shield – The badge (shield) shall be worn above the left breast pocket.

2. Name Tag – The name tag shall be worn centered and just above the right breast pocket when the shirt is the outer garment.

3. WILEAG pin: The WILEAG accreditation pin shall be worn centered and above the name tag by all uniform employees. Wearing and placement of any other pins, i.e. Drug Recognition Expert (DRE), Crisis Intervention Team (CIT), etc. are subject to the approval of the Chief of Police.

4. Collar Brass – Patrol officers shall wear “PWPD” collar brass displayed on the collar of the uniform shirt, properly aligned with the edge of the collar.

5. Collar Bars – Ranking officers shall display the designated rank on the collar of the shirt. Lieutenants shall wear collar bars denoting their rank on all uniform shirts.

F. Neckties: (Optional) Officers may choose to wear 1) the department-issued necktie and tie clasp, 2) the optional turtleneck shirt (dickey) as set forth in the Non-Issued Clothing Items section of this Order, or 3) an open collar with a dark navy crew-neck t-shirt under the prescribed long-sleeved uniform shirt.

G. Trousers & Belt: The prescribed uniform trousers and belt shall be worn. Trousers shall be kept neat and clean.
H.  Jackets/Outer Garments:  When weather conditions dictate that a jacket or other outer garment must be worn, the jacket or garment shall be buttoned and/or zipped when in public view, except within the confines of the patrol car, in the police station, or inside a building where comfort would dictate unbuttoning the jacket. The wearing of outer garments, air-weight jacket, squad jacket, or other approved uniform jacket, shall be at the discretion of the individual officer and worn in accordance with the provisions in this Order.

I.  Hat:  While engaged in normal police duties, the wearing of a police hat is optional on the part of individual officer.

1.  There are some occasions when wearing a police hat is necessary so that officers can readily be seen and identified by citizens as well as by other officers. The Chief of Police or his designee shall determine when a specific situation or occasion arises for which wearing a police hat is mandatory.

2.  The hat, when worn, shall be worn squarely on the head. The hat badge shall be worn as provided when wearing the 8-point uniform hat.

J.  The “Class A” uniform shall consist of the regulation uniform including the long sleeve shirt and necktie.

X.  WEARING OF THE BIKE UNIFORM

A.  Bike Uniform. The department has a special bike uniform that has been authorized for wear by members of the bike unit. This bike uniform shirt and trousers can also be worn by members of the department assigned to special events and for directed patrols and at the officer’s discretion, between and inclusive of Memorial Day weekend and Labor Day weekend.

XI.  WEARING THE UNIFORM OFF DUTY

A.  There shall be no exceptions to the wearing of the uniform while off duty. No part of the uniform is to be worn as part of off duty clothing. The uniform may be worn to and from home and work.
XII. COURTHROOM DRESS, PUBLIC APPEARANCES AND TRAINING

A. Officers may wear the police uniform in court or at public appearances when appearing as a representative of the department.

B. Officers off duty and desiring to wear civilian clothing in court shall adhere to the following: Male Officers shall wear a dress shirt, tie, sport coat and dress slacks. Female Officers shall wear a business suit, dress, or dress slacks and blouse.

C. Officers attending department-authorized training sessions may wear civilian clothing, in conformity with the following standards:
   1. Trousers shall be dress slacks or casual pants (khakis, etc.). Denim jeans of any type are prohibited.
   2. Neat, clean, and professional-appearing shirt or sweater. Sweatshirts, T-shirts, and clothing with advertising logos, sayings, slogans, or boldly proclaimed brand names and logos are prohibited.

D. Officers shall also be permitted to wear denim jeans or athletic type apparel if attending training, which by its nature would dictate this type of attire.

XIII. JEWELRY, TATTOOS, PURSES, BUTTONS, AND ZIPPERS

A. Officers are permitted to wear rings and wrist watches providing the wearing of these items shall not interfere with the officer’s ability to perform assigned duties and shall not tend to inflict injury to other persons because of the size or shape of the ring or watch when in close physical contact.

B. Officers may wear necklaces or wrist bracelets providing they do not distract from the officer’s appearance or interfere with the officer’s ability to perform assigned duties. Medic alert necklaces and bracelets may be worn.

C. Officers shall not wear earrings or ear ornaments of any nature.

D. Officers shall not wear pierced jewelry on any visible body part.

E. Tattoos
   1. Port Washington Police Department employees are prohibited from exhibiting or displaying tattoos or body art that is obscene or profane, sexually suggestive or explicit, racist, gang or drug related, religiously discriminatory, political in nature, or that undermines City or department values.
2. Tattoos located on the head, face, or ears are strictly prohibited. Tattoos located anywhere on the employee’s neck, as well as those that may be located on, or below the collarbone shall not be visible or observable by the public, while the employee is wearing an open collared uniform shirt.

3. Department employees shall follow the requirements of this General Order at all times when representing the department (including training sessions, meetings, etc.).

4. The Chief shall have sole discretion in determining the appropriateness of exposed tattoos.

F. Officers shall not carry a purse on duty except female officers assigned to plain clothes.

G. Buttons and zippers on uniforms shall be secured at all times when the officer is in public view except as provided in the “Wearing of the Uniform, Jackets/Outer Garments” section of this Order.

XIV. UNAUTHORIZED ITEMS NOT TO BE WORN ON UNIFORM

A. No other insignias, pins, or emblems, except those authorized by the Chief of Police as part of the department uniform shall be worn on the uniform.

XV. PERSONAL GROOMING

A. Every sworn member of the department while on duty must at all times be clean and neat in appearance. Exceptions to the grooming standards may be made for certain assignment. Standards regarding appearance shall be as follows:

1. Officers shall keep their hair neat, clean and trim to present a groomed appearance. Officers may wear their hair in such a style so that it covers no more than the upper one-half of the ears. Hair on the back of the head may touch but shall not extend over the shirt collar in a normal posture.

2. Officers shall not wear extreme hairstyles that are considered outside of accepted professional appearance. Examples of extreme hairstyles include outrageous hair colors, shaved cuts with words or designs, and radical spike cuts.
3. Beards: The wearing of full beards shall be prohibited. Except as outlined below, officers shall be clean-shaven.

4. Sideburns: Officers may wear sideburns, however, they shall not extend below the lobe of the ear, shall be unflared and neatly trimmed.

5. Mustache: Officers may wear a neatly trimmed mustache which may not extend beyond the corners of the mouth. Fu Manchu and handlebar style mustaches are not permitted.
   a) Fu Manchu is defined as a mustache that extends to the jawbone.
   b) Handlebar is defined as a mustache that is waxed and curled.

6. Goatee: Officers may wear a neatly trimmed goatee.
   a) Goatee is defined as the facial hair on the chin below the lower lip. The width of the goatee typically is about the same as the width of the mouth. The sides of a goatee are defined by vertical or slightly curved lines. The shape of the goatee is kept trimmed and rounded off at the bottom of the chin.

XVI. INSPECTION OF EQUIPMENT & PERSONNEL

A. Each sworn member of the department shall be subject to uniform, equipment and locker inspection at such times as a supervisor, or the Chief of Police may specify.
